INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of Children of Promise International

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Children of Promise International (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Children of Promise International as of December 31, 2013 and 2012 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2013 AND 2012

1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Children of Promise International (the Organization), founded in 1973, as a non-profit corporation, is a non-denominational Christian organization dedicated to caring for orphans, widows, and destitute children worldwide. The Organization fulfills its mission through partnerships to both establish and provide ongoing support for church-based orphan homes that provide comprehensive care (food, clothing, shelter, education, spiritual equipping) for orphaned and destitute children and assistance for widows. The Organization also engages in partnership to support indigenous nationals as Christian workers who plant churches and care for the poorest of the poor in many of the most impoverished nations of the earth.

The Organization's program services and partnership initiatives are concentrated in 23 countries throughout Asia and the Indian subcontinent, Africa, Central and South America, and Europe. During 2013 and 2012, the Organization provided support through both exclusive program services and partnership collaborations to approximately 1,400 and 1,300 orphaned and destitute children respectively, in some 72 orphan homes. Program services included feeding and nutrition programs, free schools, higher education support, and family assistance. The Organization also engages in mobilization of short-term mission teams to care for orphans and widows and adoption advocacy and assistance through partnerships with adoption agency partners and assistance to adoptive families and the orphaned children they are adopting. The Organization also engages in advocacy initiatives and activities on behalf of orphans and widows before faith, business, civic, philanthropic, and governmental communities.

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for federal income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

The Organization's tax filings are subject to audit by taxing authorities. The organization's open audit periods are the years ended December 31, 2010 through December 31, 2013.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Method of accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America as more explicitly described in the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Under this method of accounting, income and expenses are identified with specific periods of time and are recorded as earned or incurred along with the acquired assets, without regard to the date of receipt or payment of cash.

Functional expenses

Expenses are allocated on a functional basis among the programs and support services benefited. Expenses that can be identified with a specific program are allocated directly to that program according to their natural expenditure qualification. Other expenses that cannot be identified as related to specific programs are allocated to functional areas on the basis of estimated use appropriate for the particular expenditure.

Financial statement presentation

The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted net assets are those currently available at the discretion of the board for use in the entity's operations and those resources invested in land, buildings, and equipment.

Temporarily restricted net assets are those which are stipulated by donors for specific operation purposes, special projects, or for the acquisition or construction of land, buildings, and equipment.

Permanently restricted net assets are those restricted by donors in perpetuity as endowments or irrevocable trusts. At December 31, 2013 and 2012, there were no permanently restricted net assets.

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires or the stipulation is met, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash of

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

$319,369 and $233,626 was temporarily restricted by donors as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

The Organization maintains its checking and savings accounts in banks that are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for up to $250,000. Amounts in excess of insured limits were $129,527 and $0 at December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Property and equipment and depreciation

Property and equipment is stated at cost if purchased or fair value at the date of the gift if donated. Expenditures primarily for domestic property and equipment over a nominal amount are capitalized and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosure of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent events

The Organization evaluates events and transactions occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements for matters requiring recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The accompanying financial statements consider events through July 3, 2014, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Donations of in-kind goods and services

Material donations of in-kind goods and qualified services are recorded by the Organization as support at their estimated fair value. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long the donated assets must be maintained, the Organization reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. Temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets at that time.

The efforts of volunteer workers are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements as no objective basis is available to measure the value of their services; however, a substantial number of volunteers have donated significant amounts of their time to the Organization.

The Organization's office is located in facilities provided by another company free of rent. The value of such rents, which have not been determined by management, are excluded from the statements of activities.

3. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK

The Organization's donors are located throughout the United States of America and in the foreign countries in which it ministers. In 2013, thirty donors accounted for approximately 24% of the contributions received. In 2012, thirty-seven donors accounted for approximately 16% of the contributions received. Property in certain foreign countries in which the Organization operated may be subject to confiscation and activities halted due to the instability of the foreign government.

4. PROPERTY, EQUIPMENT AND OTHER ASSETS

Property and equipment at December 31, 2013 and 2012 consists of the following:

Equipment	$ 2,987	$ 2,987
Accumulated depreciation	(2,987)	(2,987)
Total	$ -	$ -

There was no depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Trademark registration fees of $1,945 were fully amortized at December 31, 2013 and 2012.

5. SPONSORSHIP PROGRAMS

The Organization participates in the sponsorship of approximately 1,400 orphans in about seventy-two other homes for orphans. These programs are conducted primarily by churches and other ministries in Asia, Africa and Central America. The Organization provides sponsorship funds as they are available and can cease its participation at any time.

6. CREDIT CARD

The Organization has a credit card with a local bank with a credit line of $21,000. Available credit at December 31, 2013 was $20,865.
